

CENTRECOURT DEVELOPMENTS ANNOUNCES MARK GARBER AS VICE PRESIDENT OF DEVELOPMENT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TORONTO, FEBRUARY 3, 2014 – CentreCourt Developments is pleased to announce and welcome Mark Garber as Vice President of Developments. Mark brings a wealth of experience and will be responsible for all development related activities within CentreCourt.

Mark Garber has 20 years' experience in the development management high-end residential, hotel and mixed-use properties in Boston, New York, Miami and Toronto. Mark's prior work experience includes Vice President at niche Development, overseeing high-rise condominium projects in Toronto's down town core, design management consulting for the Four Seasons Toronto, and development management consulting for the Bloor Street Transformation Project. Mark was Vice President at Jones Lange La Salle (formerly Spaulding and Slye) based in Boston, where he managed the development of The Boston W Hotel and Residences, the first two condominium projects for Northpoint, a 26 parcel brownfield development at the nexus of Boston, Cambridge and Somerville, and advised Harvard Law School on the planning for Wasserstein Hall complex. Mark was the Senior Project Manager at Millennium Partners (a leading luxury real estate developer based in New York) managing design and construction for large, mixed use luxury projects including The Ritz-Carlton Boston Common, the Ritz-Carlton Washington DC, and the Four Seasons Miami.

From the High Line to Casey House, Mark has been an active contributor to significant urban renewal initiatives and charitable development projects. Mark's career is built on ensuring that quality of design is targeted in initial project planning, and maintained through project delivery. Mark hold a Bachelor of Architecture from the University of Oregon.

CentreCourt Developments is a high-rise condominium developer focused on development located in close proximity to Toronto's major amenities, rapid transit network and employment areas. We currently have four residential condominium projects in development throughout downtown Toronto, collectively representing nearly 2,000 homes and over 1.3 million square feet.
