

CENTRECOURT DEVELOPMENTS ANNOUNCES DAVID HOWARD AS SENIOR ASSOCIATE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TORONTO, OCTOBER 20, 2014 – CentreCourt Developments is pleased to announce and welcome David Howard as Senior Associate. David will be committed to all aspects of the development process.

David has worked in investment banking for five years with Canaccord Genuity, where he contributed to the completion of several successful M&A and corporate finance transactions. The transactions David contributed to, with an aggregate value of approximately $15 billion, include several of Canada's most high profile situations in recent years. His past experience spans multiple industries, including real estate, financial services, consumer products, media and entertainment, agriculture, and industrials.

David's experience in time-sensitive situations with multiple stakeholders will be an asset to the CentreCourt team as it continues to focus on delivering high quality projects.

David holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) from Queen's University.

CentreCourt Developments is a high-rise condominium developer focused on development located in close proximity to Toronto's major amenities, rapid transit network and employment areas. We currently have four residential condominium projects in development throughout downtown Toronto, collectively representing nearly 2,000 homes and one billion dollars of development value.
